TOPIC:
Break Free -
Silent World

DATE: 6-7-2014
TIME:
11.30 am to 1 pm

Breakfree - Silent World started the journey of spiritual Sundays with Aashwasan at Urbane Solace. It took people through a journey of contemplation, inquiry, silence and laughter, facilitating people to connect to the experience in their own unique ways. Event was interactive and everyone participated and shared their experiences with each other.

As a reality we all live with ourselves 24/7 and experiencing that as a possibility in life was brought in during the talk. Towards the end of the session everybody was left with a deep silence to look back and reflect in their life. It opened up possibilities of getting in touch with their silent world, their inner self.
