...had a field day in TCS Marathon

The Aashwasan Foundation team and well-wishers participated in the TCS Marathon on May 21 to spread the word of Hope that Aashwasan Science™ stands for, and raised funds to help the foundation to reach out to the underprivileged. Painted in Gold, with logo and values etched on their faces, the runners attracted curiosity and intrigue; many clicked photos with them and some heard stories of miraculous breakthroughs in various areas of health and wellbeing (including undiagnosed and untreatable conditions) brought by Aashwasan Science™. On one hand the RJ, who was playing to the frenzy of the crowd, invited the golden faced members on to the stage to speak about Hope, on the other hand, the Aashwasan members caught the attention of the media who featured them in newspapers and TV channels. Some ran for the foundation and some contributed their bit through donations. A joyous togetherness was the highlight of the day.

Spirit-U-All™

"The journey from becoming to being"

A resplendent evening saw people from all corners of Mumbai throng to 1408 Conference Space in Powai to connect, interact and experience the special gift offered by Rashmi Aiyappa. She shared more about her life and her life experiences to bring out the deeper dimensions of a human life, which people were not experiencing any longer. The audience laughed, reflected, introspected, and explored answers to some of the unanswered and unarticulated aspects of life. As participants were facilitated to go deeper within, their perspective of life changed. A special gift as promised was a gift that put people in touch with their infinity.

Life changed. How people experienced themselves and their life was different after those moments of experience. "It was a beautiful evening". "I am glad I came, some of the conflicts I had completely resolved inside. I feel like a new person." Wrapped in the comfort of the inner peace, participants stayed back to speak with Rashmi Aiyappa one on one. A life transforming evening – as it ended, it marked a new beginning for all present!
