

*"If there is anything I worship, it is Nature.
If I have a religion, it's Humanity, and
If there is anything I believe in, it is Love.
These are the simple things I live with."*

The Story of Aashwasan

in the words of Rashmi Aiyappa, Spiritual Scientist, Inventor, Entrepreneur and Founder of Aashwasan

"Dearest ones,

Love is where it all begins!

In May 2017, Aashwasan will complete fourteen years of its existence. It was this month 14 years ago that I saw the manifestation of a dream called Aashwasan - a place where people who have lost hope come to find life, a place which celebrates life and the joy of living, a place which is open to all irrespective of their religion, caste, creed, financial status or any other classification. I wanted Aashwasan to be that place, where people would experience their true Self and would realize that their dreams are for real, life is meant to be happy and that life is set free by birth.

When I look back and see some of the most beautiful experiences over the last few years, I feel blessed with a path that takes us to reach out to people and
